Historic Farm and Ranch Complexes Website

Dear Property Owner:

The San Antonio Conservation Society Foundation's Historic Farm and Ranch Complexes Committee would like to invite you to participate in showcasing your historic farm or ranch property on the San Antonio Conservation Society's Historic Farm and Ranch Complexes website. Our goal is to celebrate and promote conservation of historic properties and to provide inspiration and examples for others looking to do the same with their properties.

If you own a historic farm or ranch and would like the committee to consider it for inclusion on this site, please print out and complete the form below, granting us permission to use the information and images described. A use policy is prominently displayed on the website. Should you have questions or comments about this project, please contact Librarian Beth Standifird, at 210-224-6163 or bstandifird@saconservation.org.

Please return the form to her at the address provided on the form or via the above e-mail address.

Your request will be reviewed by the committee and you will be contacted. If you later decide that you do not want your property listed, or certain photographs or information included, you may contact Beth Standifird, as indicated above, to have your listing revised or removed. Thank you for your interest in, and support for, this important project.
