RE: Agenda Item 17: -200 Block of Perez Street
Planning Case No. ADDR-SNC-19-12700001

Perez Street is a vital connection to San Antonio's early 19th century Spanish heritage and should not be renamed. Its name honors Lt. Col. Ignacio Perez, Ad-Interim Governor of Spanish Texas and part of one of the most influential San Antonian families. It is a rare remnant of the Laredito neighborhood, both in its landmarked historic structures, and in its name.

The San Antonio Conservation Society has long opposed the changing of historic street names. We opposed this same street name change in 2012, as did the HDRC, and the University Health System withdrew its request upon recognition of the significance of the current name. If the University Health System is intent on publicly honoring Robert B. Green, in addition to the hospital and campus he is already honored with, we feel a compromise could be made to include Robert B. Green Way as an honorary street name. One significant history should not be lost at the expense of another.

Respectfully submitted,

SAN ANTONIO CONSERVATION SOCIETY
